

Preventive screenings for men and women vary throughout their lives. See below for age/gender recommendations.

	Ages 18-39	Ages 40-49	Ages 50-64	Ages 65-74	Ages 75+
Women
<input type="checkbox"/> Mammograms	Based on family history	Yearly at age 45	Yearly until 54: every two years for age 55+	Every two years	Based on individual cancer risk
<input type="checkbox"/> Pap Smear	Every 3 years	Every 3 years	Every 3 years	Only if history of abnormal results after 65	Only if history of abnormal results
<input type="checkbox"/> Pelvic Exam	Yearly	As recommended	As recommended	As recommended	As recommended
<input type="checkbox"/> Clinical Breast Exam	Every 1-3 years	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly
Men
<input type="checkbox"/> Prostate Exam	—	Based on individual risk, family history	Offered yearly; based on recommendation	Offered yearly; based on recommendation	Offered yearly; based on recommendation
<input type="checkbox"/> Testicular Exam	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly	Based on Physician recommendation
<input type="checkbox"/> Colonoscopy	Based on individual risk, family history	Every 10 years after 45	Every 10 years	Every 10 years	Every 10 years
<input type="checkbox"/> Annual Physical	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly	Yearly
<input type="checkbox"/> Blood sugar	Overweight patients with a risk for prediabetes	Overweight patients age 45+	Offered yearly based on recommendation	Offered yearly based on recommendation	Offered yearly based on recommendation
<input type="checkbox"/> HIV Infection	Offered yearly; based on HIV risk	Offered yearly; based on HIV risk	Offered yearly; based on HIV risk	Offered yearly; based on HIV risk	—
Everyone
<input type="checkbox"/> Lung Cancer	—	—	One time if history of smoking	One time if history of smoking	One time if history of smoking
<input type="checkbox"/> Hepatitis C	—	—	One time if born between 1945-65	One time if born between 1945-65	One time if born between 1945-65
<input type="checkbox"/> Skin Cancer	Once for patients under age 24 with fair skin	Offered yearly; based on risk	Offered yearly; based on risk	Offered yearly; based on cancer risk	Offered yearly; based on cancer risk